Art Unit: 1652

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-13, 15-17, 22-24, 27 in part and claims 28-29 drawn to polypeptide of SEQ ID NO: 9 encoded by DNA molecule of SEQ ID NO: 8, and related subjects, a method for identifying inhibitors of the polypeptide of SEQ ID NO: 9 and a method of identifying psoriasis by characterization of expression level of the gene encoding SEQ ID NO: 9.

Group II, claim(s) 14, 27 in part and claim 30, drawn to antibody to SEQ ID NO: 9 and its method of use.

Group III, claim(s) 18, drawn to a method of inhibiting phospholipase A2 in human by inhibitor of the polypeptide of group I.

Group IV, claim(s) 19, drawn to a method of selling an inhibitor of phospholipase A2.

Art Unit: 1652

Group V, claim(s) 25-26, drawn to a composition comprising an inhibitor of phospholipase 2 and a method of use of said inhibitor of phospholipase A2 for inflammatory dermal disease.

The inventions listed as Groups I-V do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the special technical feature of group I is phospholipase of SEQ ID NO: 9. However, the phospholipase of SEQ ID NO: 9 is not a special technical feature of Groups II-V that have other special technical features which are different products, i.e., antibodies specific to SEQ ID NO: 9, and inhibitors of SEQ ID NO: 9, as well as methods of using and selling said products. In addition, 37 CFR 1.475 does not provide for multiple products or methods within single application, therefore, unity of invention is lacking with regard to Group I-V.

For the reason indicated above the restriction is proper.
